Learn to draw and paint the human face accurately. Bonnie, as a career art teacher and watercolor instructor, carefully designs lessons to enhance your skills.

You will learn techniques that will help you draw the features of the face, helping you to capture the essence of three dimensional form. Bonnie will demonstrate how you, as an artist, can add drama to your watercolor portraits. You may use her photos or bring your own photo references.

There will be short demos and lots of individual attention. All levels are welcome.

Since Bonnie will be vacationing here with friends, the league's expenses are reduced, and we can pass this savings on to you.

Maximum participants: 15
