Fresh orchids and other tropical plants in the studio, will be the inspiration for the first part of this workshop. A local orchid grower will bring many of her plants so the students can learn to interpret orchids in a loose and expressive manner. These will be available for sale after the first half of the workshop. You may also bring your own orchids or photos, if you prefer.

During the second half of the workshop, we will progress to the figure in watercolor. Bring lots of photos of people being active or in an environment - like the beach, country, walking, sitting, etc Rather than concentrate on the portrait, we will learn to express the gesture, fitting the figure into paintings in a "natural", spontaneous way. Fun exercises, demonstrations, "show and tell", painting time, and individual attention will weave together to make this workshop different and expressive!

Janet is a nationally recognized instructor, conducting workshops all over the United States as well as in Europe. Four instructional DVDs have been filmed of Janet's work. She has also been featured in American Artist Magazine, featuring her portraits, and in the book, The One-Hour Watercolorist.
