This workshop is sure to loosen you up, and enhance your painting style.

Come and join Janet as she shares her enthusiasm for this beautiful medium. Janet's love of light and vibrant colors is what she teaches in this step by step simplified approach. Students will have an opportunity to transfer a drawing and paint along with Janet. During the first half of the workshop, we'll focus on capturing light, and understanding the importance of values, while completing a half size sheet painting.

For the second half of the workshop, students can use their own travel photos or hometown landscapes, to create their own beautiful light-filled watercolors. Students are encouraged to bring their own reference photos, but Janet will have some to share. Janet will work with each participant to help you get your drawing, perspective, composition, and values decided for the second painting.

The workshop will be full of demonstrations and FUN. Check out Janet's website at
