Peggy is back with us again, showing us how to work on watercolor canvas, with transparent watercolors. Imagine hanging your finished watercolor painting without glass, without a mat, and without a frame!

By fracturing the space, adding geometric shapes, patterns, and color shifts to create a fresh, spontaneous look, Peggy adds excitement to her subject matter. She will demonstrate effects that give an abstract feel to her work, provide guided instruction, and individual attention. Bring a 16x20 watercolor canvas or a square, watercolor supplies, pencils, and a straight edge.

Subject ideas will be provided, or you can bring your own.
