Awaken your creative spirit and playful nature

using liquid acrylics, mediums, grounds, and collage elements as a vehicle for bold and loose self-expression. This exciting workshop helps both new and developing artists break free to explore new directions. By pouring, texturizing, layering, and pasting you will create stunning abstractions that you can then reincarnate into gorgeous representational works. You will create your own stamps, templates, and learn easy to use photo transfer processes.

You will resurrect your failed watermedia paintings using glazing, gesso, and collage. Composition and design are an integral part of the session. The workshop includes helpful personal coaching, demonstrations, and constructive group discussion. The workshop is suitable for beginner to advanced artists.

Shirley, a resident of Canada, has 30 years experience delivering workshops, and as a juror and art critic. As a recipient of numerous awards she participates in juried shows and is currently represented by 6 galleries in Canada.
